

The Department of Psychology, part of the Faculty of Arts at the University of Bonn, invites applications for a W2 Professorship for Clinical Psychology and Psychotherapy (with tenure track to W3) with effect from October 1, 2025.

The successful candidate will be capable of covering the two subdisciplines in their research and teaching. They will be required to have published in prestigious international journals of clinical psychology and/or psychotherapy research and to have secured third-party funding as part of a competitive process or processes. The duties of the professorship include contributing to and teaching on the consecutive master's degree program in Psychology—specializing in clinical psychology and psychotherapy—and heading up the University Psychotherapy Outpatient Clinic as well as playing a role in the relevant University bodies tasked with academic self-administration. The post holder will be expressly encouraged to take part in the department's various research initiatives and be ready and willing to engage in interdisciplinary collaboration within the University of Bonn as part of its Excellence Strategy. They must be prepared to work together with the University Hospital Bonn and the LVR-Klinik as part of the consecutive master's degree program in Psychology—specializing in clinical psychology and psychotherapy. A license to practice psychotherapy and proof of competence for a method approved in the applicable guidelines (Richtlinienverfahren) are also essential. Applicants require a Diplom or master's degree in Psychology, a relevant doctorate in Psychology, a Habilitation or equivalent achievements and relevant experience in academic teaching and psychotherapy practice. A continual professional development qualification as a supervisor in a Richtlinienverfahren and proof of positive student feedback would be an advantage.

The conditions of employment are in accordance with § 36 of the Higher Education Act of North Rhine-Westphalia (Hochschulgesetz NRW).

The University of Bonn is committed to diversity and equal opportunity. The institution is certified as a family-friendly university and offers Dual Career services. The University of Bonn seeks to increase female representation in staffing areas where women are underrepresented and provide special career support. It thus expressly encourages qualified women to apply. Applications will be handled in accordance with the NRW State Gender Equality Act (Landesgleichstellungsgesetz NRW). Applications from qualified candidates with a certified severe disability or from those of equal status are especially welcome.

Please contact Prof. Dr. Martin Reuter (martin.reuter@uni-bonn-diff.de) for more information on this professorship.

We would ask that all applications be submitted to the Dean of the Faculty of Arts via our online portal at <https://berufungsportal.uni-bonn.de>. Please also upload your concept for a university outpatient clinic that meets the requirements for continual professional development.

The deadline for applications is November 29, 2024.

The criteria of the interim evaluation as well as the final evaluation can be found under the following link / QR-Code:

<https://bit.ly/3tFX1Cn>

