

The Clausius-Institute of Physical and Theoretical Chemistry in the Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences at the University of Bonn invites applications for a

W3- Professorship (tenured) in Physical Chemistry to be filled as soon as possible.

Successful candidates are expected to broadly cover Physical Chemistry and to be internationally renowned in NMR spectroscopy and if applicable also DNP spectroscopy with a focus on biomolecular dynamics. Experience in the acquisition of third-party funding and active participation in planned collaborative research initiatives, e.g. on Dynamics and Function of Nucleic Acid Complexes is expected.

Teaching is an integral part of the professorial position and teaching in German and English language in all stages of the study courses is required. An appropriate time and support will be provided. Active participation in academic governance is expected.

The general conditions of employment are according to § 36 of the Higher Education Act of North Rhine-Westphalia (Hochschulgesetz des Landes Nordrhein-Westfalen).

The University of Bonn is committed to diversity and equal opportunity. It is certified as a family-friendly University and has a dual career program. It aims to increase the proportion of women in areas where women are under-represented and to promote their careers in particular. It therefore urges women with relevant qualifications to apply. Applications will be handled following the Landesgleichstellungsgesetz (State Equality Act). Applications from suitable individuals with a certified serious disability and those of equal status are particularly welcome.

For further information about this professorship, please contact the Chair of the Appointment Commission Professor Dr. Olav Schiemann via email (schiemann@pc.uni-bonn.de).

Please apply with the usual documents (curriculum vitae, certificates, list of publications including five selected offprints, description of your scientific career, scientific projects, a detailed teaching concept, courses held, and third-party funding) by June 30th, 2024, via the online portal: <https://berufungsportal.uni-bonn.de>.
